I am a 4-year letter winner for the UT Women's Soccer Team. As a team, we pushed each other to the next level every day. I embraced the struggle of competing on the soccer field and in the classroom at Texas – it brought out the best in me. I enjoy the hard work, believing that focus and a good attitude are keys to my own success. I views every practice, every workout, every game as another trial to see what I'm made of. This is where my true grit shines.
